

A Christmas Carol

30
YEARS

by Charles Dickens

4 - 7 Dec 2024

7.30pm nightly plus Sat 2.30pm

Bah, Humbug! Christmas isn't Christmas without Mr. Scrooge, is it? And we have the perfect show to get you into the Christmas Spirit. Our magical production, with its beautiful costumes and special effects, is a brilliant and entertaining play, and for youngsters and students it offers an ideal introduction to Dickens' favourite work as the characters come alive before their eyes ...

A snowy and foggy old London of 24 December 1843 is where we begin our journey with Scrooge and the Spirits. Travelling through time to a multitude of places in Scrooge's past, present and future, we see joy, sadness and frightening prospects ... but isn't the future yet to be written? Of course ... and it all depends on the choices of Ebenezer Scrooge. This seasonal classic, with its colourful characters and strong social comment, seems as relevant today as it was 181 years ago. Will Scrooge earn his redemption and ensure a happy ending? Well, it is Christmas!

Playing the roles of the many children in the story, we are delighted to feature some young actors from Store Room Youth Theatre.

This year is Brentwood Theatre's 30th anniversary – which is where and when Hutton Players first performed A Christmas Carol, so it's a 30th anniversary for us too!

Time whistles by so fast, so why not plan ahead for December 2024 and buy your tickets now? Let's enjoy the magic of theatre together as we bring this wonderful book to life in our exciting new show. What a great start to Christmas!
